Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul Celebrate the Vows of Sister Elizabeth Sjoberg

Sister Elizabeth Ann Sjoberg, D.C., a member of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul since August of 2007, made vows for the first time on Sunday, August 12 at the Basilica of the National Shrine of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Emmitsburg, Maryland.

Sister Elizabeth Ann most recently served in Campus Ministry at Mount St. Mary’s University in Emmitsburg, Md., where she had been missioned since 2009. Soon, Sister will begin graduate studies in social work at DePaul University in Chicago, Ill. A native of Chantilly, Va., Sister Elizabeth Ann’s home parish is Corpus Christi Parish. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Sjoberg.

The Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, founded in 1633 by St. Vincent and St. Louise de Marillac, is a Society of Apostolic Life in the Church. Daughters are dedicated to serving the poorest and most abandoned in society. In the United States, the Daughters trace their roots to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. The vows of the Daughters are private, annual, and always renewable.

Sister Elizabeth Ann is a member of the Daughters’ US Province of St. Louise. The Province of St. Louise includes 540 Sisters who serve in 22 US States, the District of Columbia, Montreal, Quebec, Canada, and in foreign missions on every continent except Antarctica.
